

Various Awareness Programme Organised by the Police Stations and Police Hospital under East Khasi Hills District during the years 2016 and 2017

INTERNATIONAL DAY AGAINST DRUG ABUSES 2016.

In observance of the International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit trafficking – 2016, Sadar Police Station held a week long programme in which various schools and colleges were invited to participate in a Posters and Slogan campaign against the Drug Abuse and illicit trafficking. All the invited students participated in the campaign with enthusiasm contributing by drawing posters and messages on the theme. The week long programme culminated today the 25th June 2016, in which an Awareness programme was also organized at P.S. Complex in which various schools and NGOs were invited to participate. The Posters and slogan messages against Drug Abuses and its ill effects contributed by the students of various schools were pasted at conspicuous place of the P.S. Complex. The day long programme comprised a short play staged by the Police Unit Hospital, Shillong exhibiting how drugs abuse not only effects an individual health but his whole family and society as a whole has to pay for such addictions. Power packed speeches on drug abuses were delivered by the president of Lion's club, Presentation with video clips, images, messages & write ups were presented by the invited NGOs namely (i) Manbha foundation, Shillong (iii) Impulse Foundation, Shillong. Followed by speech from Shri M. Kharkrang, IPS, SP, EKH, Shillong he cited examples making aware the happenings in the city and the threat and challenges posed by the drug abuse, which the district police had to fight on war footings. Prize distribution to the competing students in the poster and slogan campaign were awarded on Drugs to 1st prize Anisha Rani, Rama Krishan Mission Institute, Shillong. 2nd Steffy Jyrwa of Rama Krishan Mission Institute, Shillong 3rd prize Ayush Chanda, Shillong Boys High School, Jail Road, Shillong. On Human Trafficking prizes were awarded to 1st prize to Silse Danggo, Ruprekha School, Shillong, 2nd Prize went to Lima A. Sangma, Valley View School, Pynthorumkhrah and 3rd for Bansiew D. Lyngkhoi of Rama Krishna Institute, Shillong.

The programme ended with a vote of thanks from I/C Pasteur, SI. K.P. Singh followed by a light refreshments. The whole programme had a grand success and appreciated by all.

